

- The different stages of life - growing old.
 - Giving birth - having children
 - Husband & wife.
 - Being old & no one wanting to go near you.
 - Going grey first & then the rest of your body going too.
 - I absolutely LOVED IT!
- Thank you X

ON THE WAY... FINAL SONG

The way is long
And maybe with no end
But full of turns
What will be after the curve?
A lot of stones
And glass underneath
We could walk and walk
Unless this glass
Unless this glass
We could walk and walk
Unless this glass.

TWICE

Though our trip is endless
And seemingly with no sense
I think I have the reasons
To go on and make no changes
I think I have the reasons
To go on and make no changes
I think I have the reasons
To go on and make no changes
no changes, no changes, no changes
no changes, no changes, no changes
no changes, no changes, no changes
no changes, no changes, no changes

I felt it was about a journey in a persons life.

The things that have mattered to Mum. The people they have met and taken to their heart.
Their partner who they danced with until their legs were tired and broken.

Have their back was worn out and tangled with so much in their life.

And how they finally found themselves all alone at the end of their life.

I loved it, found it moving, funny and beautifully performed.
Wonderful ideas, amazing puppets, and wonderfully put together!
